Key points regarding foreign currency time deposit

- 1. Though there is no risk of loss of principal in deposited foreign currency, the exchange rate to be used for currency conversion may fluctuate, and that may cause an exchange loss. Therefore, the value of Yen you will receive including interest may be smaller than the amount of Yen you initially deposited, if the deposit currency has depreciated against Yen.
- 2. TTS rate (the rate at which Yen is converted to another currency) and TTB rate (the rate at which a foreign currency is converted to Yen) are applied respectively when Yen is converted to another currency (making deposit) and when a foreign currency is converted to Yen (making withdrawal) (please refer the following commission table). TTS rate is determined as follows: the middle rate (the standard rate for foreign currency transactions between a bank and a customer, which fluctuate according to foreign exchange rate move) plus foreign exchange commission (please refer the following commission table). TTB rate is determined as follows: the middle rate minus foreign exchange commission.
- 3. As a result, the loss of principal and interest may occur when the Yen does not fall against the foreign currency by a margin that exceeds the foreign exchange commission, not only if the deposit currency has depreciated against Yen.
- 4. When you deposit / withdraw in a foreign currency, handling charge will be applied. In case of cash in foreign currency, foreign currency cash handling charge (1.5% of the amount of foreign currency) will be applied.
