- Philippine National Bank Tokyo Branch / Nagoya Sub-Branch ("PNB Japan") shall not be responsible for errors or delays in the domestic fund transfer or for inaccuracies in the instructions provided, or for any other consequences arising from causes beyond its control. Nor is PNB Japan responsible for any consequential damages caused by errors or delays in transmission or non-transmission.
- Implementation of remittance shall be done in US dollars or Philippine Peso depending on whether the beneficiary account is in US dollar or Philippine Peso. For 'advise and pay' (over-the-counter payment) to the Head Office or branches of Philippine National Bank ("PNB") and door-to-door delivery in the Philippines, remittance will be in Philippine Peso only. The other bank may apply its own charges. For remittances using Instapay service: In case the Client opted to remit funds using the Instapay service, and the system experiences a system time out during the processing of such remittance, PNB Japan shall, within two (2) Philippine banking days from system time out, determine whether the said remittance transaction was successful or not. After the said period, should PNB Japan determine that the remittance was unsuccessful, PNB Japan shall reprocess the remittance as a new transaction.

- In order to effect overseas remittance requests, part of the client's personal information, such as the client's name, address and account number (if applicable), shall be disclosed to the concerned paying/crediting bank as originator's accurate and meaningful information.
- In order to maintain compliance with Anti-money laundering controls and laws PNB Japan may, at its sole discretion, request additional information pertaining to the source of funds, prior to the funds being sent.
