PNB Stock Rights Offering

The Philippine National Bank (“PNB”) has on April 12, 2019 obtained approval from its Board of Directors to raise up to Php12 Billion from sale of common shares to existing eligible shareholders via a stock rights offering (“Rights Offer”) to sustain its growth strategy. The determination of the final terms of the Rights Offer has been delegated to management, and the timing and size of the transaction is subject to other details such as the offer price, number of rights shares, and subject to receipt of regulatory approvals as well as market and other conditions.

PNB has intensified its coverage of large corporate clients with a greater focus on cross-selling efforts and generating more fee-based income. At the end of December 2018, PNB has grown its total assets to Php 983.6 Billion, an improvement of 17.6%% from December 31, 2017. This growth is higher than the industry average of 12.1%, based on data from the BSP.

In September 2018, PNB also announced the integration of its consumer finance banking subsidiary PNB Savings Bank into PNB as the parent bank, with the goal of capitalizing on PNB’s ability to efficiently raise low-cost funds and accelerating the growth of its consumer lending business. Over the medium term, PNB intends to invest in its digital capabilities to further enhance customer service and improve the Bank’s operational efficiency.

“We remain confident about the country’s strong economic prospects and our ability to sustain the growth that has been achieved in the past year. PNB was once the nation’s biggest bank with a strong household brand and unparalleled distribution network. The Rights Offer will allow PNB to continue embarking on a growth strategy that leverages on its unique strengths in the market.” said PNB President and Chief Executive Officer Jose Arnulfo “Wick” Veloso.
